1. Students shall continue to be regularly reminded to wear their valid College Identity Cards at all times while on the college premises and at all TRINITY event venues.
2. TRINITY - College Fest (Annual Sports Day, Fashion Show, Hackathons, and other events): A code of conduct shall be circulated to all participants well in advance, with faculty coordinators assigned to each event for on-ground discipline and safety. Fashion Show costumes/content shall be reviewed for decency by the faculty coordinator, and entry of outside guests shall be regulated through prior registration.
3. Hackathons and Events Involving Overnight Stay: Overnight stay on campus shall require prior parental consent, gender-segregated accommodation with faculty supervision, and adequate security, fire-safety and medical arrangements, with strict prohibition on alcohol, tobacco or other substances.
4. Student Visits to Other Colleges/Institutes for Events: Students shall obtain prior written permission from the HOD and Principal, travel in groups (with faculty escort where feasible), carry their College ID, and abide by the host institution's rules; itinerary and contact details shall be shared with the department beforehand.
5. Online Job Training (OJT): Students shall strictly follow the host industry/institute's rules and attendance policy, remain in contact with an assigned faculty mentor, submit periodic progress reports, and maintain professional conduct; any misconduct shall be liable for action.
6. Classroom, Laboratory and Campus Discipline: The Committee reiterated that proper discipline must be maintained in classrooms and laboratories, with eating or disruptive activities not permitted, and faculty/lab staff supporting enforcement.

3. The Committee recommended that the induction program for newly admitted first-year students should include an orientation on institutional discipline, expected standards of behavior, responsible use of facilities and relevant college rules. Departments may reinforce these aspects during their departmental induction activities.
4. The Committee emphasized the importance of maintaining proper discipline and appropriate behaviour in classrooms and laboratories. Eating and other activities that may disturb academic sessions or laboratory work shall not be permitted in these areas. Faculty members, laboratory assistants and laboratory attendants shall support the implementation of these instructions.
