NOTICE

Prospective students seeking admission to B.Tech. programs during the academic year 2026-27 as well as their parents are hereby informed that, they should not rely on admission related information collected from any random staff member in the college premises or from any touts outside college premises. Information shared by authorized personnel during the counselling sessions in the college alone needs to be considered. The undersigned will not be responsible for any wrong or irrelevant information that could be misinterpreted and falsely communicated by anyone.

Counselling sessions are being planned in the institute from the 27th of May 2026 onwards, about which the details will be updated on the college website from time to time.

Interested students and parents are requested not to disturb the college staff under any circumstances for admission related information during the working hours in the college.

Students and parents may visit the college website www.djsce.ac.in for more information as and when it is updated. All the necessary guidance and instructions will be provided in detail on the college website. They may also visit the websites of the MHT-CET Cell of Maharashtra State (<http://cetcell.mahacet.org>) as well as the Directorate of Technical Education, Maharashtra State (<https://dte.maharashtra.gov.in>) for further information, if any.

Best of Luck and good wishes to all the prospective students!
